There are three kinds of Clufffaloes: Clufffaloes: Seasons, made by all who wish to participate, only at the Roycroft in East Aurora, New York; Places, such as Clufffalo: Hamburg commissioned by the Albright-Knox Art Gallery and Erie County PublicArt initiative, painted by 150 participants and hanging in the Hamburg, New York Public Library as part of the Albright-Knox's permanent collection; and Numbers, painted by me, alone.

The Clufffalo Painting Workshop at the Roycroft began on September 21st, 2015. Since then, and including the subject of this book, thirteen Seasons paintings have been completed by 470 participants in 200 sessions.

I provide the space of the workshop, tools and materials, my time and encouragement and freedom, such as it is limited by gravity, viscosity and drying time, for the participants to engage the experience. Through the course of each season the layers of paint accrue and the participants paint their take-aways and “be” within a transformative creative moment. At the end of the season I gouge to open the layers onto each other and give the painting its characteristic look to finish the painting in a manner that fulfills my aesthetic.

The Workshop is a further development of my “structure of intentionality”, that I describe as “the photographic epic of a painter as a film or a ghost”. This is intuitively anchored in “the true, the good and the beautiful.”

Most of my aspirations have been realized—in terms of being an artist and participating in extending the family. After more than forty-five years in the field I've seen increasing interest in contemporary art accompanied by art that represents a grandiosity that runs counter to my taste. Thus the scale and parameters of production of the Seasons are modest and set in the upstate New York town in which I came to understand myself as an artist.

Time is marked by the hands of the participants. The documentation of the Workshop process is made into a book, like this one, as a contribution to art history.

The project includes whoever wants to participate, so please make an appointment to paint and share the news of this cultural experiment. Although only one session can happen per day, the project is always “on”. This book follows a format of the participant(s), their state of Clufffalo: Spring 2019 and then their take-away paintings.
