CHARLES CLOUGH CLUFFFALO: SUMMER 2016

I established the Clufffalo Institute in 2012 to manage my archive and collection and to promote and administer the Clufffalo Painting Experience for museums, onsite, globally, and for individuals and small groups at the Roycroft in East Aurora, New York.

Clufffalo: Summer 2016 has been supported by the John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation.

Here are the painters and the states of the painting made in my studio in The Print Shop at The Roycroft in the Summer of 2016.

After years of studying art, on January 5th, 1971, I came to the conclusion that I would "devote my life to art". This was in East Aurora, New York. I went on to move my studio to Buffalo at the Ashford Hollow Foundation's Essex Street facility, then to many locations in New York City, then to Westerly, Rhode Island and then back to Buffalo and East Aurora.

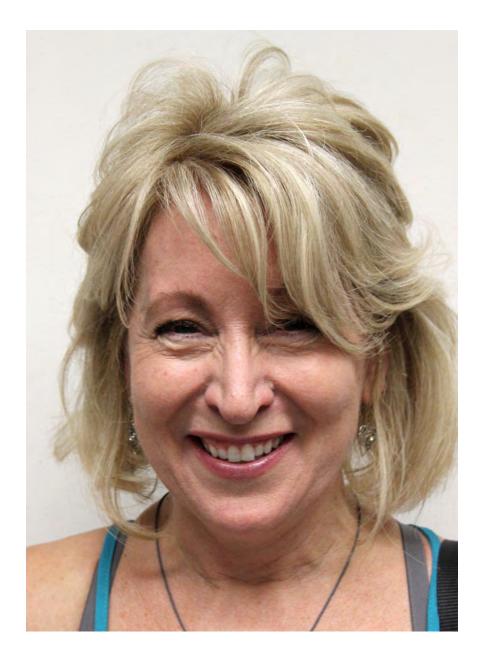

Upon the studio's return to Western New York, I neologized my url, clufff.com, into The Clufffalo Institute, to encompass my collection, archive and Painting Workshop. The Painting Workshop is located in The Print Shop on The Roycroft Campus in East Aurora. It extends my interest in engaging the public to make paintings with me, which I first presented in 1975. The Workshop is based on the format of a studio visit of an hour or two. Participants may be individuals or groups of up to six people (based on the space of the workshop). Toddlers to any age are invited, and, whatever the participant's degree of art sophistication, a special experience will be found. My approach to painting is "painterly, gestural abstraction", rooted in 10th Century Chinese brushwork, J.M.W. Turner, Impressionism, Fauvism, Surrealism, and Abstract Expressionism. Participants will be offered materials and use of my unique "big finger" painting tools to make a work to take home. Participants. Boards for the take-away painting are available at 8 x10 inches: included, 16 x 20 inches: $50, 24 x 32 inches $100.

Each season an ongoing painting will be available for participants to add to and Charles Clough to "edit" by grinding through the layers of paint and polishing its surface. The structure of this book consists of photos of the participants, followed by their state of the painting, followed by mono-prints (if made). Pages 81-86, 90-93, 97-102, 108-114, 119-133, 139 and 145-150 depict stereo photos of the surface of the painting, which I foundirresistable to shoot—cross your eyes to super-impose the paired images for the illusion of three-dimensional space. Here is the history of Clufffalo: Summer 2016.
