There have been three kinds of Clufffaloes: Clufffaloes: Seasons, made by all who wish to participate, only at the Roycroft in East Aurora, New York; Places, such as Clufffalo: Hamburg commissioned by the Albright-Knox Art Gallery and Erie County PublicArt initiative, painted by 150 participants and hanging in the Hamburg, New York Public Library as part of the Albright-Knox's permanent collection; and Numbers, painted by me, alone.

The Clufffalo Painting Workshop at the Roycroft began on September 21st, 2015. Since then, and including the subject of this book, eighteen Seasons paintings have been completed by more than 600 participants in more than 300 sessions.

I provided the space of the workshop, tools and materials, my time and encouragement and freedom, such as it is limited by gravity, viscosity and drying time, which the participants engaged the experience. Through the course of each season the layers of paint accrued and the participants paint their take-aways and “became” within a transformative creative moment. At the end of the season I gouged and ground to open the layers onto each other and give the painting its characteristic look to finish the painting in a manner that fulfilled my aesthetic.

Such has been the way of the studio until now. The Covid 19 pandemic is upon us and the Public Painting Workshop is closed.
